C to F to G to F

A musical staff with five lines. The first line is labeled 'C' above it. The second line is labeled 'F' above it. The third line is labeled 'G' above it. The fourth line is labeled 'F' above it. The staff begins with a brace on the left and ends with a brace on the right. There are four vertical tick marks on the staff, one on each line, indicating the positions of the notes. The notes are represented by short vertical lines with a diagonal slash at the bottom.
